

Central Coast
Wood Designs
main goal is to bring smiles
through pieces
of personalized art while repurposing
scrap wood that would be wasted
otherwise.

CENTRAL
WOOD
DESIGNS

Central Coast Wood Designs creates different types of designs on wood used for art, signage, or gifts. They make custom personalized designs when working with their clients or they have other options of art that they have created for sale.

Central Coast Wood Designs is a small local business in San Luis Obispo that promotes the recycled use of scrap wood that would otherwise be thrown away and repurpose it for the use of products and art with a personal touch.
